OLD FORT HERKIMER CHURCH

HERKIMER, N. Y.

This excellent example of Colaniol orchitecture built in 1740 is still in use taday as a place af worship. Erected by the early palotine settlers, the stone walls af the church were used os fortificatians in the French and Indian Wor. General Herkimer attended church here and it was alsa used as a meeting place far the early settlers of the area.

Color Transparency by Fynmore Photos

Pub. by THE KIEFER CO., Old Forge, N. Y.

PLACE STAMP HERE

Post Card

11973-B H-11

dp DEXTER PRESS, INC. WEST NYACK, NEW YORK